Grand Knight's Message

My Brother Knights:

I began to write this late last night still overwhelmed by the glory that was display before me today. I had the deep privilege of seeing the first October trees begin to lose their summer green and don their brilliant oranges, purples and gold's There's nothing like the fireworks of Mother Nature to herald in the fall season. These are moments that that give some people goose bumps. But Mother Nature didn't produce such a display for our sole viewing pleasure. The preparing the trees are a prelude to the long season of winter ahead. Well enough of what Mother Nature holds in the future for us.

Robin Hood used his bow to fight injustice. William Tell use his bow as an instrument of truthfulness. I am the bow that has sent forth seven children as living arrows into an imperfect world and supplied them with the knowledge of truthfulness, the difference from right and wrong and the ability to fight the injustice plaguing our society today.

Now before you think I have gone off the deep end or my suspenders are pulled to tight. Let me explain my message to you. In all three subjects the unified theme is helping out others, in other words following the first principle of our order Charity.

In October we see leaves change colors, the appearance of Halloween candy, costumes, pumpkins and the exchanging our short sleeve shirts for light jackets and sweaters. But October is much more we honor the Italian heritage of our council with our Annual Italian Night Dance held on Saturday, October 2, 2010 at 8 pm. This year honorees are Lou and Nancy Librandi as our Italian Couple of the year. Brother Lou has chaired the Mets Baseball Outing, and co-chaired many events including this year's picnic as well as a volunteer bartender. Nancy is very involved in school related activities and cub scouts.

There is another cause to celebrate the month of October and that is Columbus Day (Oct. 11). It was Christopher Columbus who discoverer the Americas, the one whose hand brought Christianity to the New World. We are bound together by the ideal of Christopher Columbus, and largely through the efforts of the Knights, who are now striving to make it a national holiday. We are the Knights of Columbus.

With all these celebrations we seem to forget that October is also dedicated to the Holy Rosary and this is largely due to the fact that we celebrate the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7. The celebration of this day invites all to mediate upon the mysteries of Christ.

In the coming months we will be experiencing new changes in the Council with the installation of a handicap bathroom in the main hall.

Halloween is just a few weeks away so all you ghosts and globins will be needed when we reinstitute our work parties again

Faternally,

John Macejka, Grand Knight

Atlantic City Trip Report:

Although the turnout was less than expect and the bus had some flaws to it, one being not the same bus we saw on Friday we all manage to arrive in Atlantic City in good spirits. Some of us actually came away winners, others did not. The ride back home was fill with laughter and lots of drinking. Brothers Danny Donovan, Gerry Derby and Timmy Clarkin deserve kudos for planning, setting up and running a nice trip to A/C.

Corpus Christi Council Food Drive:

OK, it's October and as yet I have not received one parcel of food to contribute to the parish outreach. If we are interested in easing the hunger pains of others you have to decide to get involved. Think one person cannot make a difference? You've be mistaken. Every person can help in one way or another—every bit counts—so please help now. So bring down any non-perishable cans or boxes of food or gift certificates and we will deliver them to the parish outreach.

Italian Night Dance:

Our Annual Italian Night Dance will be held on Saturday, October 2, 2010 8—12pm. This year's honorees are Louie and Nancy Librandi. Come out and enjoy a delicious meal, dance your heels off and celebrate with the Council in honoring Louie and Nancy. The cost is $40 pp and all reservations will be handled by SK Nick Pennacchio, PGK and his committee. Nick's number is (516) 742—8379.

Please meet Our 2010 Italian Couple of the Year:Lou and Nancy LiBrandi:

Louis is a life long Mineola resident. His parents moved to Mineola from Brooklyn in 1960. Nancy was born near Buffalo, NY and remained a resident there until she determined Mineola was the place to be!

Lou and Nancy met in October 1988 at Nancy's brother, Brian's wedding in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Lou met Brian when they began their careers at the IRS as pension specialists. Brian had done his best to keep them separated but often talked about the other to each of them.

Lou and Nancy became friends and finally decided to "date" long distance in 1995. Nancy moved to Mineola in March 1998.

Lou and Nancy

After their engagement on Irish Night at Shea Stadium on Lou's birthday in August of that year, they were married by Father Batule on May 1, 1999 at Corpus Christi Church with a festive 5 hour reception at the K of C.

Lou has been a member of the K of C since 1984, initially playing on the K of C softball team and watching Islander games. He has been an officer and participated on a few committees including Italian Night. He subsequently became involved with chairing the annual baseball outings to attend a Mets game, as well as the LI Ducks, and this year coordinated the first outing to a Brooklyn Cyclones game. He assisted with the revitalization of the K of C Family Picnic in August headed by Tom Kelly. You may also see him bartending certain K of C functions, particularly New Year's Eve.

Nancy heads up the schooling and related activities for their 2 boys – Nicholas (9) & Michael (8) who are active in the MAA baseball program and Cub Scouts. They both attend Jackson Avenue School and Corpus Christi for catechism.

Breast Cancer Charity:

As most of you know, I am involved with a breast cancer charity. Each year we raise funds that are donated for breast cancer research and to families affected by this horrible disease. Last year we raised over $26,000 and hope to match that this year. I would appreciate anything you can do to help this cause.

We are going to have a garage sale on Saturday, October 2nd. If you have anything laying around your house that you have no use for but don't want to throw out, please donate to our cause.

Our annual fundraising event will take place at the Knights of Columbus on Sunday, October 24th.

There will be music, food, drinks and many raffles. I hope you will be able to attend.

Norbert Gerstner

Halloween Party:

Halloween imagery includes themes of witches, ghosts, vampires, monsters, pirates, science fiction inspired characters and political figures will all be present at our annual party on Saturday, October 30. All are welcome, open bar, prizes for best costume--$25 per person. If costumes are not your thing grab a whistle and a clip board and become a Mineola High School Football or Lacrosse Coach.

Also there will be another contest for the best carved or decorated Jack-O Lanterns.

Please contact Nick Passarella at (516) 746—8643 for additional details.

Catholic War Veterans Post 1949:

A Short Message from the Monsignor:

Baseball is regarded as our national pastime. An indication of its status in our culture is found in the fact that the sport is played on many levels from T-ball to major league ball. At the little league level of the game, there is something known as the mercy rule. The mercy rule says that when a team goes up by 10 runs, the game is brought to a halt. Baseball became our national pastime because youngsters who played the game at the age of 12 grew up, had kids of their own and these kids in turn played too.

When games are fun and competitive, a kind of love affair with baseball develops generationally. There is delight in the sound of the bat meeting the ball: in the sight of a perfectly manicured diamond: in the symmetry of 3 strikes and 3 outs. But the delight evaporates and can turn to dread when your team is defeated again and again, beaten back relentlessly and humiliated to no end. Memories of humiliation are hard to shake.

The other day, on the Feast of the Triumph of the Cross, Msgr. Henning pointed out for us the difference between humility and humiliation. He explained that humiliation is a denial of honor and dignity. Things were done to Our Lord, he said, including the most glorious thing of all: He was raised.

We must surrender; we must truly submit. Otherwise, we cannot share in the Lord's glory. We would be too "puffed up" were we not to yield before the Lord's grace.

In truth, there is about humility a real strength, a genuine respect. Paradoxically, this strength and respect are experienced inwardly by the one who loses, who is overcome. They are also experienced by the one who prevails, the one who knows victory.

In today's gospel, the evangelist records how a sinful woman bathed the feet of Jesus with her tears. She then dries Jesus' feet with her hair and proceeds to kiss them and anoint them. This action is found by Jesus' host a certain Pharisee, to be offensive. To this, Jesus proposes a parable. The parable concerns two people in debt to a creator. The creator magnanimously cancels what is owed to him from both. The question arises; Who will love the creator more? The answer of course is: The one with the larger debt.

Jesus follows the parable with an explanation and an announcement which is even more shocking.

Her sins are forgiven, he says. This is on account of her great love. Repeatedly in his ministry, Jesus forgives sinners. After reading and hearing of this so frequently, we might be inured to the source and origin of the pardon. The scandal might long ago have dissipated for us. When we forgive in imitation of Christ, it obviously binds us more closely to the One Who has loved us and there is credit in that for us. Leaving that aside for the moment, though, what great mystery do we shared in?

Thirty years ago, at the beginning of his pontificate, John Paul II published Dives In Misericordia. Commenting on the parable of the prodigal son, the Holy Father argue that the richness of God's mercy is evident precisely in what it accomplishes. It restores the dignity which we lose by our sin, which we willfully reject and throw away by our pride and self-assertion.

The paschal victory of Christ has been achieved by grace. But it is not a cheap grace -- to borrow a phrase from Dietrich Bonhoeffer. It is a costly grace. And Msgr. Henning reminded us on Tuesday, the Lord's triumph is a bloody one.

Humiliation brings us so low that we are almost not able to detect a humanity: ours and perhaps our opponent's. It is definitely not kenotic as wherein Jesus voluntarily surrenders his glory all the while he retains his nature at God.

Mercy is not a name for a word or act which seeks permanently to hold it over the one who is brought low. Mercy is relief, It makes us free again. It reverses the alienation we have set in motion by our sin.

This past Sunday, we listened to a selection from St. Paul's First Letter to St. Timothy. In it the Apostle to the Gentiles refers to his life as a blasphemer, a persecutor and arrogant. Twice in the passage, Paul states that he was mercifully treated.

We too are mercifully treated. The Holy Eucharist does not let us forget this grace at work in our lives. Here, the humility of Our Savior, which brought Him low, raises us above humiliation. In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus commends the disciples to be merciful that mercy might be shown to them. It is the Lord's judgment to which we are all subject. The measure with which we measure will be measured out to us.

Msgr. Robert Batule

Editor's Note:

I was right the Sermon on the Mount was shorter.

Chapter News:

Introduce your child to ice hockey by going to one of the two games that the Knights of Columbus of Nassau County and the NY Islanders are teaming up with to raise money for charity. Give your wee one the chance to feel the thrill when their team scores a goal, or simply enjoy watching the players skate and pass the puck. I think the fact that the sport is played on ice is enticing to the little ones, plus the kids get an excuse to yell indoors by cheering on their team. Oh, and let's not forget the Zamboni. Something about that ice resurfacers makes kids go wild. For each reduced ticket purchased a donation will be made to the Knights of Columbus of Nassau. So act now to make a great save and support a great cause.

State Council News:We Let Go 479 Net 144 Terrible Numbers

What's happening out there? At this rate we will not exist in a few years Art Harris, State Deputy.

Well Art:

Recruiting and retaining good members are priorities for nearly every council in every state. After all, nowhere is this truer in our council, our members are the heart and soul of our organization. Yet recruiting and retaining good members is a challenge for our council today.

Accordingly new members who have joined our organization for six or fewer months are the ones most likely to leave; those between one to two years' are the next most likely to leave.

Given the high expenditure of time, talent and hard work in recruitment by our Chancellor and Admission Chairman Member retention demands attention.

Ken Lyons, PGK

Membership:

This month we will have (4) candidates available to make their first degree. When they have completed their degrees we will list them and their sponsors.

Starting next month the Editor and his staff will be selecting at random a member profile in this column.

Insurance News:

When a representative of a life insurer comes to your home. Most people, inundated by too much information, think that a discussion about their financial future with a professional advisor leaves them with more questions than answers. That may be true under some circumstances, but not with the Knights of Columbus. We offer you life insurance (whole life and term), fixed annuities and long-term care. We will sit with you and your wife, gather some very basic information, draw a conclusion with you, and propose a solution for you that fit within your budget. Our Insurance Agent is Dan Higgins

Pro-Life Corner:

A Pro-Life activist from Michigan has been shot and killed. Initial reports say the man is James Pouillon who is known as the "abortion sign guy". Apparently he was well known in the community for holding up abortion signs with pictures of aborted babies. There have actually been two people killed and it looks like the murders are related. If this was done because of Pouillon's views on abortion, will the President of the United States issue any sort of statement on this just like he did when abortion doctor George Tiller was murdered? The pro-life community waits to see what he does.

Father Michael J McGivney:

A common question most often asked "How's the cause going?" It's tough to come up with a clear answer because the reported miracle presently under consideration by the Congregation of the Causes of Saints must go through a series of "tests" before the Congregation can make a judgment about its authenticity. Nonetheless, it is clear that thus far the reported miracle has not been rejected by the Holy See and there are indications that it continues to be seriously considered by medical and theological experts. As Knights of Columbus members we must pray daily that the beatification of Venerable Michael McGivney will become a reality soon. He is an extraordinary example for all priests and seminarians.

The Lighter Side of Life:

The Ant and the Grasshopper:

Old Version:

The ant works hard in the withering heat all summer long, building his house and laying up supplies for the winter.

The grasshopper thinks the ant is a fool and laughs and dances and plays the summer away.

Come winter, the ant is warm and well fed.

The grasshopper has no food or shelter, so he dies out in the cold.

MORAL OF THE OLD STORY:

Be Responsible for Yourself

New Version:

The ant works hard in the withering heat and the rain all summer long, building his house and laying up supplies for the winter.

The grasshopper thinks the ant is a fool and laughs and dances and plays the summer away.

Come winter, the shivering grasshopper calls a press conference and demands to know why the ant should be allowed to be warm and well fed while he is cold and starving.

CBS, NBC, PBS, CNN, and ABC show up to provide pictures of the shivering grasshopper next to a video of the ant in his comfortable home with a table filled with food. America is stunned by the sharp contrast.

How can this be, that in a country of such wealth, this poor grasshopper is allowed to suffer so?

Kermit the Frog appears on Oprah with the grasshopper and everybody cries when they sing, 'It's Not Easy Being Green...'

A CORN stages a demonstration in front of the ant's house where the news stations film the group singing, "We shall overcome."

Then Rev. Jeremiah Wright has the group kneel down to pray for the grasshopper's sake.

President Obama condemns the ant and blames President Bush, President Reagan, Christopher Columbus, and the Pope for the grasshopper's plight.

Nancy Pelosi & Harry Reid exclaim in an interview with Larry King that the ant has gotten rich off the back of the grasshopper, and both call for an immediate tax hike on the ant to make him pay his fair share.

Finally, the EEOC drafts the Economic Equity & Anti-Grasshopper Act Retroactive to the beginning of the summer.

The ant is fined for failing to hire a proportionate number of green bugs and, having nothing left to pay his retroactive taxes, his home is confiscated by the Government Green Czar and given to the grasshopper.

The story ends as we see the grasshopper and his free-loading friends finishing up the last bits of the ant's food while the government house he is in, which, as you recall, just happens to be the ant's old house, crumbles around them because the grasshopper doesn't maintain it.

The ant has disappeared in the snow, never to be seen again.

The grasshopper is found dead in a drug related incident, and the house, now abandoned, is taken over by a gang of spiders who terrorize the ramshackle, once prosperous and peaceful, neighborhood.

MORAL OF THE STORY:

Be careful how you vote in 2010.

These are actual comments made by Police Officers. The comments were taken off actual police car videos around the country:

1. "You know, stop lights don't come any redder than the one you just went through."
2. "Relax, the handcuffs are tight because they're new. They'll stretch after you wear them a while."
3. "If you take your hands off the car, I'll make your birth certificate a worthless document."
4. "Warning! You want a warning? O.K, I'm warning you not to do that again or I'll give you another ticket."
5. "The answer to this last question will determine whether you are drunk or not. Was Mickey Mouse a cat or a dog?"
6. "Just how big were those 'two beers' you say you had?"
7. "No sir, we don't have quotas anymore. We used to, but now we're allowed to write as many tickets as we can."
8. "I'm glad to hear that the Chief (of Police) is a personal friend of yours. So you know someone who can post your bail."
AND THE WINNER IS....
9. "You didn't think we give pretty women tickets? You're right, we don't... Sign here."
